REGISTRATION HALTED,

Many More Thousands of Workingmen to Be Forced From Water Front

The programme for registering on ar allens in New York was haited to-day by President Wilson's recourmendation that the United States declare war on Austria-Hungary. If Congress acts, it will double the work, but in the opinion of Federal officials will simplify the situation because It will not be necessary to draw any disthetlens in watching allens.

There is a rush of Austriana and Hungarians to courts dealing with naturalization papers. More than 200 applied to Justice Chegorich for their second papers, but were told that all petitions of Austrians, linegarians, Turks and Bulgarians would be put over until after the war. The naturalization authorities at Washington suggested that this step is taken. If war is declared on Austria-Hungary, and it is decided to place women subjects of enemy countri
